As such, SWWDB is responsible for handling all payroll and workers' compensation insurance items associated with the Rock Internship Program.

Specific payroll on-boarding and reporting procedures will be reviewed during the Signing and Orientation Day. To ensure timely arrival of the payroll check, timesheets must be submitted in the prescribed form, format and time frame, to Katie Gerhards (SWWDB Program Specialist) at k.gerhards@swwdb.org.

Tardy & Absenteeism, Conduct and Grounds for Termination

Attendance at all internship program activities, events, etc. is mandatory. Vacations, athletic events or practices, and secondary employment obligations, etc. are not automatically recognized as excused absences. If a circumstance surfaces that restricts an intern's ability to meet their daily / weekly obligation(s), that intern must immediately communicate (as defined by at least 30 minutes prior to the scheduled report time) via phone and/or email with both the Internship Coordinator and the intern worksite.

Unexcused absences, habitual tardiness and/or other non-participation instances serve as grounds for termination from the program. In the event that an unexcused infraction occurs, a strike will be issued and then be noted in the intern's file. If an intern accumulates three strikes, he/she will be terminated from the program.

Extraordinary events will be addressed on a case-by-case basis and subject to the discretion of the Internship Coordinator and the intern worksite.

Disrespectful, harmful, hateful, inappropriate, illegal and/or violent conduct will not be tolerated. If any of the following circumstances surface, the intern will be immediately terminated from the program and other municipal and/or criminal penalties may apply:

- Using or being under the influence of alcohol, tobacco and/or drugs (ATOD).
- Physical or personal property damage, including but not limited to theft, vandalism and/or bodily harm.
- Possession of firearms, explosives, weapons or any other hazardous devices; and/or using any item as a weapon.
- Fraudulent reporting of internship hours worked.
- Inability and/or refusal to follow directions.
- Physical and/or verbal harassment to an employee, vendor, visitor, fellow intern or Rock Internship Program contacts.

NOTE: Using personal mobile or cellular devices while at the intern worksite and/or during any BTC program event is strictly prohibited. To alleviate this issue, interns are encouraged to leave these devices in their vehicle and/or in a designated location.

Conflict Resolution

In the event a conflict surfaces, regardless of cause, interns will be required to meet with the Intern Coordinator, the intern worksite supervisor and/or other involved parties. Refusal to fully participate in a conflict resolution process may lead to termination from the program and future academic, athletic and/or extracurricular participation restrictions at the intern's school district.

Intern Responsibilities

Confirming your schedule with your worksite supervisor

It is your responsibility to coordinate and confirm your weekly work schedule with your worksite supervisor. Please remember that your work hours may not exceed the program guidelines and if they do, these hours will not be eligible for payment from the program.

Attendance and dependability

You are expected to report to work, activities and seminars on-time. If you must be absent or tardy, you are required to contact the Internship Coordinator and the intern worksite supervisor – via email or phone – at least 30 minutes prior to the assigned report time. Attendance at all (BTC) program activities, events and related seminars is mandatory.

Performance

During the internship, professionalism and performance matters. Simply stated, arrive each day ready to learn-and-earn. Your performance will be evaluated throughout the internship, with feedback provided by both the Internship Coordinator and the intern worksite supervisor.

Time and Recordkeeping

You are responsible for tracking your work hours. Per the Internship Program Participation Agreement, interns are allowed to work up to 30 per week at their worksite. All hours tracked will be recorded, including those hours associated with the BTC workshops and field trip; and then submitted per SWWDB procedures. In addition, students are required to keep a weekly journal of said job responsibilities. These will be reviewed by, as well as discussed with, the Internship Coordinator. Fraudulent records and/or failure to comply with the aforementioned items may result in payment delay or program termination.

Rules and Regulations

You are expected to follow all rules, regulations; policies and procedures; and direction, guidelines and/or instructions associated with the Rock Internship Program.

Your Intern Worksite

The first day in a new job can seem a lot like your first day of school. Remember that you only get one chance to make a good impression. Below are a few tips to make your internship a positive experience.

- Be prepared, know your schedule, the intern worksite supervisor and the Rock Internship Coordinator contacts.

- Dress for success (and per the worksite requirements) and be on time.
- Be attentive, courteous, polite, professional and respectful because first impressions count.
- Write things down and ask plenty of questions.
- Be enthusiastic, helpful, flexible and show initiative.
- Keep a positive attitude.

No matter what task you have at hand, put your best foot forward and demonstrate that you are dependable, reliable and trustworthy. You may be assigned a task you do not particularly enjoy, but once you have gained the trust of your intern worksite supervisor, you may be assigned to other and/or more appealing tasks.

Finishing up Your Internship

As an intern you are gaining more than just money: you are expanding your professional network and learning first-hand about career paths. During the final week of your internship, you should be doing the following:

Get References

Ask your supervisor and anyone else you may have worked with if they will allow you to use them as a reference. These references will prove useful for future employment and academic uses, respectfully.

Ask for a Letter of Recommendation

If you are going to need a letter of recommendation, this would also be the time to ask. It is best to ask your supervisor to write this while your information is still fresh in their mind.

Network

Ask your supervisor about setting up informational interviews with someone who is in the field where you are thinking about launching a career. For example, if you think you are interested in pursuing marketing, and your host site has a marketing department, ask if you can set up a time to meet with someone there.

Additional Information / Questions / Support
